ABOUT GARV

Garv is an international disputes lawyer & Indian litigator who helps clients avoid and resolve disputes. He is best known for his work on business laws and international arbitration.

Garv started his career by practicing as a junior counsel under an Advocate-on-Record before the Supreme Court of India at New Delhi. Thereafter, he moved overseas to gain practical and academic experience in Europe and Asia. He worked and trained at leading disputes practices globally before becoming a founding member of the Indian boutique, Skywards Law.

He has been trained by practice leaders in multiple jurisdictions. He has experience in conducting matters for individuals, companies, and state-owned entities in matters involving Indian, Singapore and English laws; under SIAC, ICC, UNCITRAL & LCIA rules, as well as ad hoc arbitration (both physically and virtually). He also has substantial experience in conducting domestic arbitration matters under Indian Law.

He has dealt with a wide range of matters relating to international goods & services; construction of buildings, vessels, highways and dams; disruptive technologies; aviation; corporate affairs; energy and aerospace. Garv is also a skilled mediator and has knowledge of the nuances of various dispute resolution mechanisms as well as the practice of international institutions & tribunals.

Apart from practice, he lectures and takes sessions at various Universities in Asia including the National Law School, Bangalore; Gujarat National Law University; National University of Singapore etc.) and regularly speaks at various conferences & web-events. He recently spoke at the United Nations International Commission on Trade and Law-GNLU International Conference on the Harmonization of International Law.

Garv holds a dual bachelor's degree in Law and Commerce (from Gujarat National Law University; graduating with the GLAS Scholarship for all round excellence); a master's degree in international dispute resolution (from the Graduate Institute & University of Geneva on a full scholarship) and a second master's degree in international arbitration from the National University of Singapore (on the Centre for International Law scholarship). He has also read law at Académie de Droit International de La Haye (The Hague Academy of International Law), Netherlands (on the Mayor's Scholarship), the Paris Academy of Arbitration and the Singapore Investment Arbitration Academy.

Beyond the Law, Garv is a widely travelled language enthusiast.
